3 AUTHORITY

- a. The Chief Administrative Officer is hereby authorized to administer and enforce the provisions of this bylaw and may levy charges in accordance with this bylaw or as may be authorized by Council pursuant to the provisions of this bylaw. When this bylaw authorizes the County to act or gives to the County discretion, the Chief Administrative Officer is authorized to act on behalf of the County.

- b. The Chief Administrative Officer is hereby authorized to conclude on behalf of the County, any agreement, contract or transaction with a company/person for the purposes of providing animal control services and enforcement of the provisions of this bylaw.
- c. The Chief Administrative Officer is hereby authorized to consider approvals authorized in this bylaw.
- d. The Chief Administrative Officer is hereby authorized to subdelegate any of the responsibilities delegated to them in this bylaw.

4 APPLICABILITY

- a. This bylaw regulates all Prohibited Animals within the County.
- b. This bylaw shall apply to all Animals, including, but not limited to, Dogs, Livestock and Urban Hens located within the boundaries of the County.

5 ANIMAL REGULATIONS

- a. The calculation of Animal Units is outlined in Schedule "A" attached to this Bylaw.
- b. The maximum number of permitted Animal Units allowed on specific property types is set out in Schedule "B" attached to this Bylaw.
- c. As per the County's Land Use Bylaw any property where four or more Dogs and/or cats over six months in age are maintained, boarded, bred, trained or cared for in return for remuneration or kept for the purpose of sale is deemed a kennel and the provisions of the Land Use Bylaw also apply.
 - i. In the event of an inconsistency between this Bylaw and the Land Use Bylaw related to Animal Units for kennels, the Land Use Bylaw will apply.
- d. Owners are responsible for ensuring that Animals in heat are confined on their property.
- e. All Animals and Livestock must be confined to the Owner's parcel, unless otherwise provided in this Bylaw.
- f. Animals on any property with any zoning other than Agricultural District, must be solely for the private use of the residents unless otherwise authorized by the Land Use Bylaw or Chief Administrative Officer.
- g. If the number of Livestock located on a Country Residential (R-1) or Agricultural parcel meets or exceeds the Natural Resources Conservation Board's (NRCB) requirements for registration, the landowner must contact the NRCB and attain appropriate approvals.
- h. The keeping of any wildlife, endangered, and or exotic animals, either on a temporary or permanent basis, must be in accordance with the Province of Alberta Wildlife Act.
- i. No Person shall allow an Animal on their premises, or Animal activities upon their premises, to become a Nuisance or cause an unsightly condition.
- j. No Person shall tease, torment, annoy, abuse or injure any Animal.

6 URBAN HENS

- a. This Bylaw does not apply to hens on properties zoned as Agricultural District.
- b. Urban Hens may be allowed with or without a permit, as specified in Schedule "C" attached to this Bylaw.
- c. The maximum number of Urban Hen Permits that may be issued for each calendar year shall be:
 - i. Hamlet of Springbrook, the maximum number of Urban Hen Permits that may be issued shall be ten (10);
 - ii. Hamlet of Gasoline Alley, the maximum number of Urban Hen Permits that may be issued shall be ten (10);
 - iii. The maximum number of Urban Hen Permits that may be issued in each of the other County Hamlets shall be five (5).
- d. Applications for an Urban Hen Permit are to be submitted with the applicable fee as noted in the County's Fee Bylaw.
- e. When an application for an Urban Hen Permit is received, Adjacent landowners must be notified and provided an opportunity to submit a response to the County in relation to the application. The County maintains the sole discretion as to whether an Urban Hen Permit is issued or not.
- f. An Urban Hen Permit is valid only for the period of January 1 to December 31 in the year for which it is issued.
- g. Urban Hen Permits shall be issued only by the County.
- h. An Urban Hen Permit is not transferable from one person to another or from one property to another.
- i. Urban Hen coops must be built to provincial standards, abide by the County's Land Use Bylaw, and meet all conditions listed on the Urban Hen Permit.
- j. Urban Hen coops must be maintained in good repair and sanitary condition, free from vermin and noxious or offensive smells and substances.
- k. The Applicant for the Urban Hen Permit must reside on the property upon which the Urban Hens will be kept.
- l. Each Urban Hen must be kept in a coop at all times. Urban Hens are not permitted to be At-Large.
- m. No Person shall slaughter, euthanize, or attempt to euthanize an Urban Hen.
- n. The sale of eggs, manure, and other products associated with the keeping of Urban Hens is prohibited.
- o. Where this Bylaw requires a minimum standard, the County may impose a condition to an Urban Hen Permit requiring a higher standard where it is deemed by the County that adherence to the minimum standard may result in conditions that unduly interfere with or affect the use, enjoyment of value of neighboring properties.

7 RESPONSIBLE ANIMAL OWNERSHIP

- a. No Owner of an Animal shall allow an Animal to:
 - i. be At-Large.
 - ii. create noise to the extent that it disturbs any Person. This provision does not apply to Animals raised on Agricultural District properties for agricultural purposes. When a Peace Officer is determining if the noise is reasonably likely to disturb a Person consideration may be given, but is not limited to:
 - (A) Proximity to the property where the Animal resides;
 - (B) Typical duration of the noise;
 - (C) Time of the day and day of the week when the noise typically occurs; and
 - (D) Nature and use of surrounding areas.
 - iii. damage public or private property other than the property of its Owner.
 - iv. bite any person or Animal.
 - v. attack a person or Animal.
 - vi. defecate on any public or private property other than the property of its Owner.
 - (A) If an Animal defecates on any public or private property other than the property of its Owner, the Owner shall cause such defecation to be removed immediately.

8 ANIMAL CONTROL OPERATIONS

- a. An Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer may:
 - i. conduct patrols within various locations of the County for the purposes of enforcing the provisions of this Bylaw;
 - ii. impound or cause to be impounded any Animal which is found to be At-Large on a County highway, public place, or private property if requested by the Owner or occupant of the private property to have the Animal removed from the private property.
- b. Investigation of Complaints
 - i. An Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer may, at their discretion, refuse to investigate or take any action on a complaint if the Officer reasonably believes that:
 - (A) The complaint is frivolous, vexatious or without merit;
 - (B) The complaint falls outside the scope of this Bylaw;

- (C) The complaint is not supported by evidence or information; or
- (D) The complaint is more appropriately dealt with by another authority or agency.
- ii. An Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer who refused to investigate or take any action on a complaint under this section shall not be held liable for any damages or losses arising from the refusal, unless otherwise provided by law.
- iii. The decision of an Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer to refuse to investigate a complaint under this section shall be final and not subject to review or appeal, unless otherwise provided by law.
- iv. Nothing in this section shall limit or affect the right of any person to seek redress or relief through any other legal or administrative process.
- c. The County is not responsible for any injury sustained by an Animal during capture or impoundment.
- d. Impounded Animals shall be maintained in a pound, duly designated by the County, for not less than five business days. For clarity, Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory holidays are not included in the calculation of dates.
 - i. During the time an Animal is impounded it shall be advertised as being impounded after which time the Animal may be sold for an amount not less than the impoundment fees and costs or destroyed.
 - ii. Impoundment fees include the cost of any veterinary treatment when an Animal is found injured or ill or becomes injured or ill during capture or impoundment.
 - iii. A person claiming an impounded Animal shall pay to the pound keeper an amount not less than the impoundment fees and costs.
 - iv. An Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer may refuse to release the Animal from impoundment to its Owner if the Officer has reason to believe the Animal is a danger to persons, Animals or property, or if the Officer believes the Animal is in danger. The Animal may be held while the matter is investigated.
- e. At the expiration of the five days of impoundment the Animal will become the property of the County and the County is authorized to
 - i. Sell or gift the Animal; or
 - ii. Surrender the Animal to an appropriate adoption agency; or
 - iii. Destroy the Animal.
- f. Upon being apprised there is a serious outbreak of hydrophobia or rabies, or any other communicable disease known to be transmitted by domestic Animals, the Chief Administrative Officer is hereby authorized to proclaim the County or any of its parts as an area in which domestic animals are absolutely restricted or confined to the property of the Owner of such animals for such period as is deemed appropriate by the Chief Administrative Officer.

- i. Any Owner of a domestic animal failing or neglecting to comply with an order related to an outbreak is guilty of an offence.
 - ii. Any domestic animal found contrary to an order related to an outbreak can be captured or destroyed, as the circumstances warrant, by any Animal Control Officer, Peace Officer, agent or employee of the County, or any other person authorized to do so by the Chief Administrative Officer during the period the order is in effect.
- g. In case of an emergency the Chief Administrative Officer may:
- i. temporarily impound Animals for reasons related to or outside of this Bylaw;
 - ii. charge, change, or exempt impoundment fees;
 - iii. change timelines related to impoundment as described in Section 9.d as they see fit.

9 PROHIBITED ANIMALS

- a. Roosters are only permitted on properties zoned Agricultural District. Roosters are not permitted on any other types of property without approval from the Chief Administrative Officer.
 - i. When considering granting approval for roosters on property with a zoning other than Agricultural District, the Chief Administrative Officer:
 - (A) will notify Adjacent landowners and seek their feedback.
 - (B) will refer the request to applicable County departments for comment.
 - (C) may consider the following when making their decision:
 - (i) Comments from Adjacent landowners;
 - (ii) Comments from applicable County departments;
 - (iii) The animal husbandry practices occurring on the property;
 - (iv) Neighbouring land uses; and
 - (v) Any other information the Chief Administrative Officer deems relevant.
 - (D) The Chief Administrative Officer may:
 - (i) Approve or deny the request;
 - (ii) Set conditions for an approved request, whether contained in this Bylaw or not; and
 - (iii) Set the duration of the exemption up to a maximum of five years.
- b. No person shall keep, either on a temporary or permanent basis any Prohibited Animals as specified in Schedule "D" on any properties within County boundaries.
- c. Any Prohibited Animals located within the County must be euthanized or removed from the County within seven (7) days of receiving written notice from a Peace Officer. The cost of removal will be at the sole responsibility of the Owner of the lands upon which the Prohibited Animals are located.

10 OFFENCES

- a. Any person who keeps or harbors an Animal in contravention of this Bylaw is guilty of an offence.
- b. Any Owner of an Animal who contravenes this bylaw is guilty of an offence.

11 PENALTIES

- a. Where an Urban Hen Permit has been issued, the County may revoke or suspend the Urban Hen Permit if the permit holder has contravened this Bylaw.
- b. A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Bylaw is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to the specified penalty set out in the General Penalty Bylaw or for offences for which a penalty is not provided in the General Penalty Bylaw is liable on summary conviction to a minimum of fine $100 and not exceeding $10,000.00, and in default of payment of any penalty, to imprisonment for up to 6 months.
- c. Where a Peace Officer or Animal Control Officer reasonably believes that a person has contravened any provision of this Bylaw, the Peace Officer or Animal Control Officer may, in addition to any other remedy at law, serve upon the person a violation tag, in the form used by the County, allowing payment of the penalty as set out in the General Penalty Bylaw for the particular offence, which payment will be accepted by the County in lieu of prosecution for the offence, or a Peace Officer or Animal Control Officer may issue a violation ticket in accordance with the Provincial Offences Procedure Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. P-34 (as amended), allowing a voluntary payment of the penalty as set out in the General Penalty Bylaw, or, requiring a person to appear in court without the alternative of making a voluntary payment.
- d. Any person who contravenes the same provision of this Bylaw after the date of the first contravention is liable for the specified penalties for such second, third or subsequent offence in the amount set out in the General Penalty Bylaw.
- e. The conviction of a person under the provisions of this Bylaw does not operate as a bar to further prosecution for the continued neglect or failure on the part of the person to comply with the provisions of this Bylaw or conditions, orders, or permits issued in accordance with this Bylaw.

12 ORDERS BY A JUDGE

- a. For those offences involving Dogs, upon conviction, a Judge may, direct, order, or declare one or more of the following:
 - i. that the Owner take specific steps to prevent the Dog from doing mischief or causing the disturbance or Nuisance complained of;
 - ii. that the Dog be destroyed; or

- iii. that the Owner be prohibited from owning any Dog for a specified period of time.

13 SEVERABILITY AND REPEAL

- a. Should any clause or part of this Bylaw be found to have been improperly enacted, for any reason, then such clause or part shall be regarded as being severable from the rest of this Bylaw and the Bylaw remaining after such severance shall be effective and enforceable as if the clause or part found to be improperly enacted had not been enacted as part of this Bylaw.
- b. Bylaw No. 2018/7 is hereby repealed on the final passing of this Bylaw.
