- 2.1.19 "Town" means the municipal corporation of the Town of Hinton.

3.0 PURPOSE AND EXEMPTION AMOUNT

- 3.1 The purpose of this Bylaw is to allow for:
 - 3.1.1 Non-residential Property Exemption A - New Developments and Expansions to be exempted from the Non-residential municipal property Taxes applicable to the New Development or Expansion in an amount that is equal to:
 - a) 100% of the value of the Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the first year of taxation;
 - b) 100% of the value of the Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the second year of taxation of the New Development or Expansion;

- c) 75% of the value of the Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the third year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion; and
- d) 50% of the value of the Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the fourth year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion; and
- e) 25% of the value of the Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the fifth year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion.

3.1.2 Machinery and Equipment Exemption A - New Developments and Expansions to be exempted from the Machinery and Equipment municipal property Taxes applicable to the New Development or Expansion in an amount that is equal to:

- a) 100% of the value of the Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the first year of taxation of the New Development or Expansion;
- b) 100% of the value of the Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the second year of taxation of the New Development or Expansion;
- c) 75% of the value of the Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the third year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion;
- d) 50% of the value of the Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the fourth year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion; and
- e) 25% of the value of the Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the fifth year of the taxation of the New Development or Expansion.

3.1.3 Non-residential Property Exemption B - New Developments and Expansions to be exempted from the Non-residential municipal property Taxes applicable to the New Development or Expansion in an amount that is equal to 100% of the value of the annual Non-residential municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the first 15 years of taxation of the New Development or Expansion following, for each Non-residential Property Exemption granted under this Bylaw, the date on which the criteria for such Non-residential Property Exemption is met.

3.1.4 Machinery and Equipment Exemption B - New Developments and Expansions to be exempted from the Machinery and Equipment municipal property Taxes applicable to the New Development or Expansion in an amount that is equal to 100% of the value of the annual Machinery and Equipment municipal tax levy applicable to the New Development or Expansion in the first 15 years of taxation of the New Development or Expansion following, for each Machinery and Equipment Exemption granted under this Bylaw, the date on which the criteria for such Machinery and Equipment Exemption is met.

3.1.5 Medical Clinic Exemption C – Medical Clinics to be exempted from the Non-residential municipal property Taxes to a maximum of 100% of the value of the annual Non-residential municipal Tax levy for a 5-year period based on the following formula:

- a) The annual Exemption amount shall be calculated as $0.60 per verified Alberta Health insured patient visit for Publicly Insured Services in the previous calendar year performed at the Medical Clinic receiving the Exemption, multiplied by the total number of such visits, to a maximum of 100% of that years annual municipal Non-residential Property Tax levy.
- b) For new Medical Clinics in their first year of eligibility that did not operate for the entirety of the previous calendar year, the Exemption amount for the first year of eligibility will initially be calculated based on a reasonable estimate of the anticipated number of Alberta Health insured patient visits for Publicly Insured Services in the first calendar year (ending December 31) of the Medical Clinic's eligibility to receive an Exemption, using the same formula in section 3.1.5(a). At the end of the first calendar year in which the Medical Clinic is eligible to receive an Exemption (ending December 31), the Applicant shall provide actual patient visit data for Publicly Insured Services in that year, and the Exemption for that year shall be recalculated based on the actual data. The Applicant shall either be refunded any excess Taxes paid, or shall pay any additional Taxes owed, within 30 days after the Town provides written notice of the reconciliation.

- 4.5.7 the Applicant must complete an application in accordance with this Bylaw and the completed application, including all required information and documentation, along with the application fee must be submitted by the Application Deadline in this Bylaw;
- 4.5.8 the Non-residential Property which is the subject of the application must not have previously been approved for a Non-residential Property Exemption under this Town of Hinton Non-Residential Tax Incentives Bylaw, as amended or replaced from time to time.
- 4.5.9 The Non-residential Property must be approved to be used as a Medical Clinic under the Town's Land Use Bylaw.
- 4.5.10 The Applicant must operate a Medical Clinic on the assessed property at the time of application and throughout the duration of the Exemption.
- 4.5.11 The Applicant must, at the time of application, submit patient visit data verified by Alberta Health for all Publicly Insured Services provided at the Medical Clinic and paid for by Alberta Health during the previous calendar year, and such data must be verified as having been provided at the assessed property. This data shall be used to determine the exemption amount for the full five-year exemption period.
- 4.5.12 Notwithstanding the above, The Applicant may resubmit patient visit data annually between January 1st and March 31st for the purpose of recalculating the Exemption.
- 4.5.13 For determining the Exemption amount as per the formula in section 3.1.5(b), the Applicant shall, at the time of submitting its Application, submit a reasonable estimate of the anticipated number of Alberta Health insured patient visits for Publicly Insured Services in the first calendar year (ending December 31) that the Medical Clinic would be eligible to receive an Exemption. The CAO may, in their sole discretion, request any data or further explanations as may be required to confirm that the estimate provided is reasonable, and may refuse to grant an Exemption if, in their sole discretion, the estimate provided is unreasonable. No later than March 31 in the year after the Medical Clinic's first year of eligibility to receive an Exemption, the Applicant shall submit actual patient visit data verified by Alberta Health for all Publicly Insured Services provided by the Medical Clinic and paid for by Alberta Health in the previous calendar year, and the Town shall recalculate the Exemption amount for the first year of eligibility based on that actual data, and shall provide a written notice to the Applicant of the result of the reconciliation, and the amount of taxes to be refunded to the Applicant, or to be paid by the Applicant as a result of reconciliation.
- 4.5.14 The CAO may, in their sole discretion, request any further information or data as may be required to confirm the accuracy of any information provided by the Applicant for determining eligibility for an Exemption, or for determining the Exemption amount, and the Applicant must provide any further information requested to maintain eligibility for an Exemption.

5.0 APPLICATION FOR AN EXEMPTION

- 5.1 Applicants must apply for an Exemption using Appendix "B" – Application Form for Non-Residential Tax Incentives and the application must include all required information and documentation as outlined in Appendix "A" – Application Requirements for Non-Residential Tax Incentives.

- 5.2 Completed applications, including Appendix "B" and all required information and documentation as outlined in Appendix "A", along with the application fee must be received by the Finance Department of the Town prior to the Application Deadline.
- 5.3 Notwithstanding anything in this Bylaw, Applicants may apply for an Exemption at any time prior to the Application Deadline, including prior to any or all the Exemption criteria listed in Section 4.0 of this Bylaw, as applicable, being met, in which case, the CAO may grant an Exemption, provided that, in such case, the Exemption shall be granted conditional on all the Exemption criteria listed in Section 4.0 of this Bylaw being met by the Application Deadline.
- 5.4 Notwithstanding anything in this Bylaw, where the Applicant is not the Assessed Person, the Exemption shall be granted conditional on the Applicant becoming the Assessed Person prior to the Application Deadline.
- 5.5 The CAO has the discretion to reject applications that are incomplete, illegible, or received after the Application Deadline in this Bylaw.
- 5.6 The CAO will advise Applicants in writing if their application is rejected for being incomplete, illegible, or late and return the application.
- 5.7 Applicants whose applications are returned as incomplete or illegible may resubmit an application provided the application is resubmitted by the Application Deadline.
- 5.8 Notwithstanding the requirements for a completed application, the CAO may require additional information that, in the discretion of the CAO, is necessary to complete the application and may require the Applicant's consent to be given for the CAO to obtain such additional information.
- 5.9 The CAO will advise Applicants in writing if their application is accepted for consideration. Applications accepted for consideration shall become the property of the Town and may not be returned.

6.0 DECISION ON THE EXEMPTION

- 6.1 The CAO will consider each application in accordance with this Bylaw to determine if they meet the criteria for an Exemption and either:
 - 6.1.1 grant an Exemption pursuant to this Bylaw; or
 - 6.1.2 reject the application for an Exemption.
- 6.2 If the CAO grants an Exemption, the CAO will issue a written decision to the Applicant outlining the following information:
 - a) the taxation years to which the Exemption applies, which must not include any taxation year earlier than the taxation year in which the Exemption is granted;
 - b) the extent of the Exemption for each taxation year to which the Exemption applies, which amount is determined in accordance with Section 3.0 of this Bylaw;
 - c) any conditions the breach of which will result in cancellation of the Exemption, and the taxation year or years to which the conditions apply; and
 - d) any other information or conditions provided by the Town.

- 6.3 If the CAO rejects an application for an Exemption, the CAO will issue a written decision to the Applicant outlining the following information:
 - a) the reasons why the application did not meet the criteria for an Exemption; and
 - b) the date by which an application for an appeal to Council must be submitted.
- 6.4 Except as otherwise provided herein, an Applicant may make subsequent applications for an Exemption and Council may grant subsequent Exemptions in respect of the same Non-residential Property.
- 6.5 The balance of the approved Exemption is transferable to subsequent owners of the Non-residential Property and Machinery and Equipment for which it was granted provided that all eligibility criteria under this Bylaw continue to be satisfied.
- 6.6 Subject only to cancellation pursuant to Section 7, Non-residential Property and Machinery and Equipment will continue to be exempt from municipal property Taxes in accordance with the Exemption decision for the duration of the time specified in the Exemption decision notwithstanding the subsequent amendment, replacement or repeal of this Bylaw.

7.0 CANCELLATION OF AN EXEMPTION

- 7.1 If the Town determines that the Applicant or their application:
 - 7.1.1 Did not meet or ceased to meet any of the applicable criteria in Section 4.0 of this Bylaw which formed the basis of granting the Exemption; or
 - 7.1.2 That there was a breach of any condition of the written decision, the Town may cancel the Exemption for the taxation year or years in which the criterion was not met or to which the condition applies, other than for criterion or conditions to be met on a specific date in accordance with this Bylaw and provided that, except where the Applicant is in the process of foreclosure, bankruptcy, or receivership:
 - a) the Town shall send a prior default notice to the Applicant or subsequent owner of the property with reasonable details and supporting documentation, declaring the intention of the Town to exercise its rights under this Section 7.0 of this Bylaw;
 - b) if the default is not duly remedied by the Applicant or subsequent owner of the property at least sixty (60) calendar days or any further delay as required under applicable law or regulation for the Applicant or subsequent owner of the property to be able to cure any such default, the Town shall send a final default notice to the Applicant or subsequent owner of the property;
 - c) if such default remains unremedied for thirty (30) calendar days after the final notice, the Exemption may be cancelled provided further that if such default is cured within the notice period set out above, then the Exemption shall not be cancelled.
- 7.2 For greater clarity, the criteria in Section 4.0 of this Bylaw are deemed conditions, the breach of which will result, subject to Section 7.1 of this Bylaw, in the cancellation of the Exemption for the taxation year or years in which the criteria are not met.
- 7.3 The Town shall send a written decision of cancellation to an Applicant whose Exemption was cancelled stating the reasons for cancellation and the date by which an application for an appeal to Council must be submitted.

7.4 Any exemption granted in error or during a period of ineligibility may be added to the tax roll as taxes owing for the applicable taxation year and collected in accordance with the Act.

8.0 APPEAL TO COUNCIL

8.1 An Applicant may appeal to Council in the following situations:

- 8.1.1 An application for Exemption is rejected; or
- 8.1.2 An Exemption is cancelled.

8.2 A request for an appeal must be in writing and be received by the Finance Department of the Town no later than the time and date specified in the decision in which the exemption was rejected or cancelled.

8.3 Council, after considering the appeal, may;

- 8.3.1 Uphold or revoke a decision of the CAO with respect to the outcome of an application or cancellation of an Exemption; or
- 8.3.2 Direct the CAO to revise or amend the decision with respect to the matter.

8.4 The decision of Council on appeal shall be final and binding upon all parties.

9.0 SEVERABILITY

9.1 If any portion of this Bylaw is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the invalid portion must be severed, and the remainder of this Bylaw is deemed valid.

10.0 Review

10.1 Exemption A and B will expire January 30, 2028.

10.2 Medical Clinic Exemption C shall be reviewed five (5) years following the date of final reading, with consideration given to the status of local healthcare access at that time.

11.0 EFFECTIVE DATE

11.1 Previous version of this bylaw 1161 and all amendments thereto are hereby repealed upon the coming into force of this Bylaw

11.2 This Bylaw shall come into force and take effect upon receiving third and final reading.

Read a first time this 07 day of April, 2026.

Read a second time this 07 day of April, 2026.
