SCHEDULE 'J' – Landfill Regulatory and Tipping Fee Bylaw

J01 – General Refuse Charge is defined under Section 7.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per 1000 kg (metric tonne) of refuse. The fee listed is the default charge and is charged unless another fee supersedes this fee under this schedule.

J02 – General Refuse Charge is defined under Section 7.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged as a flat rate per landfill visit. The fee replaces J01 if the calculation of the fee in J01 is less than J02.

J03 – Compostable Waste under 250 kg is defined under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per day and is in replacement of J05 up to the weight restriction given. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01.

J04 – Noxious Weeds and/or Infested Vegetation is defined under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per day and is in replacement of J05 regardless of the weight of the load. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01.

J05 – All other Compostable Waste is defined under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per visit after any credit is received for J03 and J04. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01.

J06 – Construction Waste, Demo Permit is defined as Solid Waste under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. Any materials that come from a construction site is charged under this rate as an exception to J01. This rate is valid if a Town of Princeton construction permit is presented before dumping. The fee is charged per visit. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01.

J07 – Construction Waste, General is defined as Solid Waste under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. Any materials that come from a construction site is charged under this rate as an exception to J01. All construction materials dumped using this fee require approval of the Director of Infrastructure or the Chief Administrative Officer before dumping takes place. The fee is charged per visit. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01.

J08 – RDOS Garbage Tag is defined as Solid Waste under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. All garbage must be bagged and accompanied by the proper ticket issued by the Town or must be transported by vehicle and accompanied by the proper ticket issued by the Town to use this rate. The rate is used for household garbage only in accordance with the Shared Services Agreement. J01 and J19 will be charged if the load is a mixed load. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01 and is charged per use.

J09 – Recyclable Waste is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is the default rate for recyclable waste unless replaced under a specific exemption in this bylaw. If this rate is applicable, it replaces the rate charged under J01 and is charged per use.

J10 – Clean Soil is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit and per visit and replaces J09 for any amount provided. Dumping under J10 requires approval from the Director of Infrastructure or the Chief Administrative Officer prior to dumping.

J11 – Propane Tank is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit and per visit and replaces J09 for any unit provided.

J12 – Tires 1 is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit for any tire up to 24.5" in diameter with the rims removed up to a maximum of 10 tires per day. This fee is charged per unit disposed and replaces J09 for any unit provided.

J13 – Tires 2 is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit for any tire up to 24.5" in diameter with the rims attached up to a maximum of 10 tires per day. This fee is charged per unit disposed and replaces J09 for any unit provided.

J14 – Tires 3 is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit for any tire not charged under J11 and J12. This fee is charged per unit disposed and replaces J09 for any unit provided.

J15 – Refrigeration Unit is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This rate is charged per unit for any unit that has not had the refrigerant removed. If the refrigerant has been removed, the unit is charged under J09.

J16 – Mattress is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This unit may be charged under other fee structures if the mattress is completely separated, and its separated parts can be recycled and disposed of under another fee structure. A mattress and a box spring set are considered two separate items for the purpose of this fee. This fee is charged per unit and replaces J09 for any unit disposed.

J17 – Couch is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This unit may be charged under other fee structures if the mattress is completely separated, and its separated parts can be recycled and disposed of under another fee structure. This fee is charged per unit and replaces J09 for any unit disposed.

J18 – Hot Tub Shell is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This fee is charged per unit and replaces J09 for any unit disposed.

J19 – Hot Tub Motor is defined as under Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. This fee will be charged under J09 if the motor has been removed and can be defined by the bylaw as metal waste. This fee is charged per unit and replaces J09 for any unit disposed.

J20 – Mixed Loads is defined under Section 7.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per 1000 kg (metric tonne) of refuse. At the discretion of the landfill user, the user has the ability to take several trips between the scale and the dump area to pay the constituent rates for each class of refuse. The fee listed replaces J01 at the discretion of the landfill operator if the landfill user refuses or is unable to separate the types of refuse.

J21 – Uncovered or Unsecure Loads is defined under Section 7.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee also covers hazardous materials as per Section 3.1 of the Princeton & District Landfill Bylaw No. 743, 2002 and its subsequent amendments. The fee is charged per 1000 kg (metric tonne) of refuse. The fee listed replaces J01 at the discretion of the landfill operator. The landfill operator, at his discretion, may refuse any load that he deems unsafe until the landfill user covers or secures the load enough for safe disposal.
