

BYLAW 245-2002

A BYLAW TO PROHIBIT OBSTRUCTIONS ADJACENT TO CERTAIN ROAD ALLOWANCES.

The Council for the Rural Municipality of Riverside No. 168, in the Province of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

1. For the purpose of this bylaw the expression;
 (A) “municipality” means the Rural Municipality of Riverside No. 168 of Saskatchewan
 (B) “road” means any road allowance within the municipality other than:
 (1) a private road; or
 (2) a provincial highway
 (C) “other object” does not include fence lines.
2. No person shall hereafter plant trees or shrubs or place stone, earth or gravel piles, portable structures, permanent structures, machinery or other objects on private property within:
 (A) Ninety (90) meters from the intersection of the centre lines of any municipal roads;
 (B) Forty-six (46) meters from the centre line of any municipal road.
3. The Council may by order, direct the owner of any private property upon which a tree or shrub has been planted, or a stone, earth or gravel pile, portable structure, permanent structure, machinery or other object has been placed in contravention of the provisions of Section 2 hereof, to remove the same within a time stated in such an order and the provisions of Section 173 of the Rural Municipality Act, 1989, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, if the owner fails to comply with the order.
4. The Council may at their discretion, and by resolution provide for the removal of the items mentioned pursuant to section 3, at the expense of the municipality, any items which are:
 (A) Ninety (90) meters from the intersection of the centre lines of any municipal roads.
 (B) Forty-six (46) meters from the centre line of any municipal road.
5. For purposes of fence lines:
 (A) Fence lines may be constructed anywhere on private land, so long as it is on private owner boundaries;
 (B) No person shall hereafter construct a fence on any municipal right-of-ways.
6. Any person who contravenes the provisions of Section 2 and 5 hereof, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to the penalties imposed in the general penalty bylaw of the municipality.

7. The above is pursuant to Section 206 (j) and (n) of the Rural Municipality Act, 1989.

8. Bylaw No. 132 is hereby repealed.

9. This bylaw shall come into force and have effect on the final date of passing thereof.
